

QUESTION	STATE	PERSON
1. Describe how your state health care reform efforts ensure family input into planning and implementation and address family centered care. What role does Help Me Grow play in ensuring the family contribution to state health care reform?	Oregon Connecticut	Cate Drinan Lisa Honigfeld Cate: Statewide implementation of HMG will bring in family voice through early learning hubs' parent accountability councils Lisa: Inclusion in all SIM workgroups, CT Family Support Network on Pediatric Payment Reform
2. Describe how your state health care reform efforts address health disparities and Help Me Grow's contribution to these efforts.	Connecticut Oregon	Lisa Honigfeld Peg King Lisa: Recognition that health and developmental disparities are set in motion early and through HMG can address vulnerabilities early Peg: Medicaid claims data analysis of developmental screening payment to detect disparities and ensuing action plan
3. What kinds of information and data from Help Me Grow will help your advocacy efforts to integrate early childhood development into health reforms efforts?	Washington Vermont	Sharon Beaudoin Janet Kilburn/Claire Kendall Sharon: Health care cost savings in both short and long term for early detection of delays and connection to services on a national scale and within the Medicaid population. And the connection between the care coordination model of HMG related to value-based payment modeling

		Janet: Developmental Screening as quality measure in Vermont Blueprint and developmental screening registry fosters cross-sector utilization of uniform data set Claire: community partner leadership perspective
4. Who have you found to be important partners in your work to influence your state's health reform efforts?	Vermont Washington	Claire Kendall Sharon Beaudoin Claire: community partner leadership perspective Sharon: Our state has a regional approach to leadership in health reform efforts, thus regional leaders are having the biggest impact
5. Share one important lesson learned in being the voice for families, early childhood advocates, and Help Me Grow in health care reform?	All	